While calling this an Italian thoroughbred might be a step too far, there's absolutely no denying these are a fantastic modern day hot hatchback, totally engaging to drive with the little but mighty 1.4 turbo charged engine sending 160 horsepower to the front wheels in what is a very light car making this the ultimate B road blaster all the while capable of achieving nearly 50 MPG if you act your age and not your shoe size while driving it, but where's the fun in that!
